School Visit and Interactive Assembly

a completely unique visit by an award-winning historical writer!

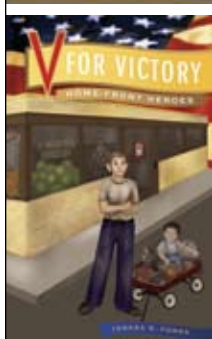

Teresa Funke is the author of five books for children and adults, including her popular World War II series, The Home-Front Heroes, for readers 9-14. She is a sought-after speaker and writer's coach who has been conducting author visits in schools since 2002.

Teresa believes in the Whole Child approach to education and has combined elements of history, reading, writing, theater, art, and character development into her dynamic new school visit and assembly.

In her popular all-school assembly, Teresa relates her writing journey and tells how, unlike most writers, she bases all of her books on real people she has interviewed and real events in history. She introduces students to the subject of World War II through a multi-media presentation that highlights the contributions children made to the war effort and encourages students to "do their part" today by helping in their school and community.

Teresa also offers age-appropriate writing workshops for primary, upper elementary, middle school, and gifted and talented students. Visit her website today for workshop descriptions and pricing.

Grade Level: Upper Elementary / Primary Grades (assembly and workshop only) / Middle School: English, History or Creative Writing classes.

Curriculum Areas: writing / reading / history / English / theater / art and character development. Gifted and talented focus optional.
